Name: Stairs That Consume

This abnormal object is what appears to be an ordinary stair, its made out of un-colored (gray) concrete and has the same durability as concrete, but sentient beings that are less than 5 meters away from it are affected by its abnormal effects.

Any alive being near this stair will start to hear their loved ones calling them from the 2nd floor, for humans these could vary from family members, friends or even their head executive (known as “boss” in the society), for animals these sounds will be like their parents or mates.

If someone or something believes these sounds and tries to climb the stairs, they will be transported to another realm, this happens after the first turn (the stair has 10x2 steps and a middle section).

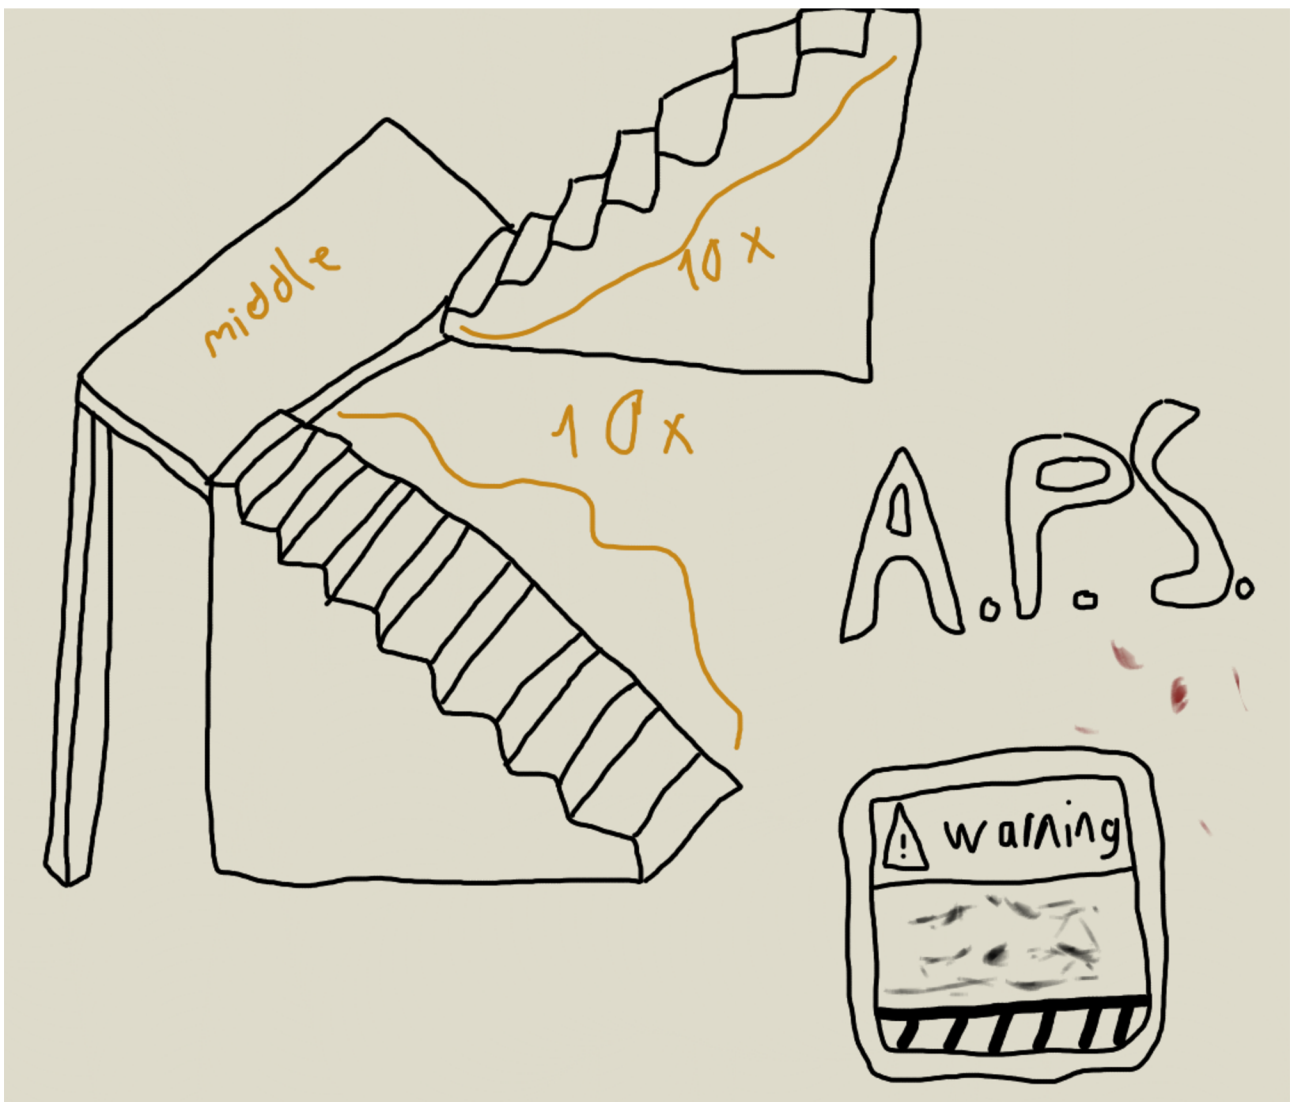

Once they are transported there is no discovered way of going back, first 10 steps of the stairs and any buildings from our world wont exist in that realm, transported human (or animal) will only have the choice of going up 10 more steps, and stepping into what seems to be endless concrete floor, our researchers were only able to discover 8KMs of this realm but they found nothing. Humans (or animals) transported to this realm will slowly rot away (after dying from hunger), and the realm will “consume” them.

Our researchers believe that every being that dies in that realm makes it grow further, but there is no proof of this. As stated previoulsy these stairs can be destroyed, but if the stair loses approximetly %10 of its mass, or no creature enters the realm for a few days, the stair will collapse to the ground and appear at somewhere else.

Our researchers believe that these stairs have somewhat understanding of our realm, because these stairs usually appear inside buildings, and they are positioned in spaces that people would think there could be a stair in that position.

To prevent casualties, A.P.C. security department will explain the situation to goverment forces (fbi, cia, state police or local authorities) and...

...and place the signs (shown below) near the stairs.
